Unclaimed Winning “Carolina Cash 5” Ticket Worth $267,437 About to Expire

RALEIGH- The clock is ticking and about to expire on an unclaimed Carolina Cash 5 ticket purchased in Durham County! The ticket is worth $267,437.

The ticket, which was purchased for the May 4, 2009 Carolina Cash 5 drawing, will expire if not claimed at North Carolina Education Lottery (NCEL) headquarters by 5 p.m. on Nov. 2, 2009.

The ticket that matched the five white balls on May 4 was purchased at Tri Star Mobile at 2900 Durham/Chapel Hill Boulevard in Durham. The five white balls for that drawing were:

7 - 13 - 22 - 33 - 39

If not claimed, the Lottery Act designates that half of the unclaimed prize will be distributed to the Education Lottery Fund while the other half will go back into prizes for future games.

###

100% of the North Carolina Education Lottery net proceeds are used for pre-kindergarten programs for at risk youth, reduction of class size in early grades, school construction and need-based college scholarships.
