NC Education Lottery Introducing Its Holiday Games

RALEIGH- It's beginning to look a lot like the holidays at the North Carolina Education Lottery (NCEL) with the introduction of three holiday-themed games.

Jingle Big Ol' Bucks, Holiday Gifts and Stocking Stuffer will be in stores starting Tuesday, Nov. 3. This will give players plenty of time to have some holiday fun and may make for a nice gift for co-workers, family or friends. The NCEL would like to remind players that any lottery ticket should only be purchased as a gift for adult recipients 18 years old or older.

Jingle Big Ol' Bucks is a $5 game with over $9.2 million in total prizes, which includes eight top prizes of $100,000. It also features over 47,000 prizes between $50 and $100. Players who scratch and reveal an "ALL" symbol win all 15 prizes on that one ticket.

Holiday Gifts is a $2 game with eight top prizes of $25,000. It also is loaded with prizes between $25 and $1,000.

And Stocking Stuffer is the name and that is the game for anyone looking for a little something that has a chance of being something big in someone's stocking. This $1 game is stuffed with $50 and $100 prizes.
